Once in royal David's city

t. naar Cecil Frances Alexander (1818-1895)

- 1. Once in royal Davids city stood a lowly cattle shed, where a mother laid her baby in a manger for his bed; Mary was that mother mild, Jesus Christ, her little child.
- 2. He came down to earth from heaven who is God and Lord of all, and his shelter was a stable, and his cradle was a stall; with the poor, oppressed and wholly, lived on earth our Saviour holy.
- 3. Jesus is our childhood's pattern, day by day like us he grew, he was little, weak, and helpless, tears and smiles like us he knew; and he cares when we are sad, and he shares when we are glad.
- 4. And our eyes at last shall see him, through his own redeeming love, for that child so dear and gentle is our Lord in heaven above; and he leads his children along to the place where he is gone.
- 5. Not in that poor lowly stable with the oxen standing by, we shall see him, but in heaven, set at God's right hand on high; there his children gather round, bright like stars, with glory crowned.

lowly = nederige, cattle = vee, shed = schuur, manger = trog, shelter = schuilplaats, cradle = wieg, oppressed = onderdrukt, wholly = totaal, Saviour = Redder, childhood = jeugd, pattern = voorbeeld, sad = droevig, glad = blij, crowned = gekroond, redeeming = verlossende, oxen = ossen, gather = verzamelen

- 2. He came down to earth from heaven who is God and Lord of all, and his shelter was a stable, and his cradle was a stall; with the poor, and mean, and lowly, lived on earth our Saviour holy.
- 3. And through all his wond'rous childhood, he would honour and obey, love and watch the lowly maiden, in whose gentle arms he lay; christian children all must be mild, obedient, good as he.
- 4. For he is our childhood's pattern; day by day, like us he grew, he was little, weak and helpless, tears and smiles, like us he knew; and he feeleth for our sadness and he shareth in our gladness.
- 5. And our eyes at last shall see him, through his own redeeming love, for that Child so dear and gentle is our Lord in heaven above; and he leads his children on to the place where he is gone.
- 6. Not in that poor lowly stable, with the oxen standing by, we shall see him; but in heaven, set at God's right hand on high; where like stars his children crowned all in white shall wait around.
